

SENSITIVE TO THE NEED

The 21st century is a time of incredible change and challenges.
What a time to serve God!

TEXT: Acts 16:6-15

We live in an _____ AGE.

We live in an age of _____ REFORMATION.

We live in a time of _____ EVANGELISM.

Matthew 24:14

Our church must be full of Christians who are willing to take advantage of our assets and make an _____ difference in the lives of others.

Key #1: Be Sensitive to God's _____ (Acts 16:6-15)

- Paul's Vision (verses 6-10).
- Paul's Ministry (verses 11-15).

Philippians 1:3

- Paul's Example: _____

Christians are to be _____ to God's calling.

1. There are some good things God does _____ want us to do.
2. There are some things God wants only _____ to do.

In the same way, there are ministries that only you can do. There are people that only you can reach. There are gifts that only you can give.

3. When we sense God's calling, _____ brings blessings.

Key #2: Be Sensitive to _____ Brothers (James 2:14-17)

- Two Difficult Questions (verse 14).

What doth it _____?

Can _____ save him?

The person who claims to know Christ, but does no "works" or service for Him has _____ been truly saved in the first place.

Church membership rolls are filled with many self-_____ people.

- An Apt Illustration (verses 15-16).

Galatians 6:10

Genuine believers, sensitive Christians do works that _____ their faith in Christ.

- A Biblical Principle (verse 17).

We are _____ saved by works; but _____ authenticate our salvation.

- Making this Principle Practical.

1. Know that there are _____ needy brothers.
2. Know that there is a difference between what we know and what we _____.

We must not simply possess an accurate theology;
we must also allow an accurate theology to possess
_____!

3. Know that there is a difference between what we say and what we _____.

Key #3: Be Sensitive to a Needy _____ (Luke 14:15-24).

- Jesus' Instruction (verses 12-14).
- Jesus' Illustration (verses 15-24).
- Jesus' Application
 1. The Jews were invited to be part of His kingdom but they were too _____ with keeping their own religious traditions.

2. This message is for the _____.

The gospel is for everyone!

3. This message is for the _____ believer.

Conclusion:

The _____ are Close to the Heart of God.

Psalm 68:5; Luke 4:18; Galatians 2:10

People should be Taught to _____.

II Thessalonians 3:10

Genuine Christianity is _____.

The Church is to _____ the World.

The church should not be a fenced-in _____ from the darkness of the world, but rather be a spearhead that _____ the community with the love of God.

Tucson Baptist Church

Tucson, Arizona

Sunday, October 25, 2020

AM Worship Service

Pastor Brent D Armstrong

Pima County Sheriff's Department

October 12, 2020

Dear Pastor Brent Armstrong and the Tucson Baptist Church Congregation,

We at the Pima County Sheriff's Department are grateful and overwhelmed by your generosity to our department and the law enforcement community. Not only have you provided us access to your facility over the years for training and ceremonies, but recently presented snacks and a supportive note to our administrative staff, deputies, and corrections officers. On behalf of our agency, I offer my deepest gratitude to you and your fellowship.

Best regards,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Mark D. Napier".

Mark D. Napier
Pima County Sheriff