

FOCUSED ON FORGIVENESS

EXCHANGE GUILT FOR GRACE

Pastor Brent D. Armstrong | February 25, 2024

TEXT: Psalm 51:1-17

The world says, guilt and shame are the illegitimate inner children born of dastardly authority systems.

Guilt is the reality that tells us the entity of _____ is in our lives.

The reality of _____ indicates that the entity of God's Spirit is alive and present within us.

PRINCIPLE #1: NEVER IGNORE _____

People are capable of holding grudges for a _____.

PRINCIPLE #2: SEEK FORGIVENESS _____

Failure to seek _____ speaks volumes about our pride and irresponsibility.

PRINCIPLE #3: EXPLORE THE DEPTH OF YOUR _____

PRINCIPLE #4: _____

David admits that he cannot _____ himself.

PRINCIPLE #5: ACCEPT THAT GOD'S FAITHFULNESS IS BIGGER THAN YOUR _____

We are faith-less, but God is _____.

If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. (1 John 1:9)

Half-hearted apologies do not affect God's _____ to forgive, but they do affect our experience of forgiveness.

The only way to get rid of guilt, and to experience grace, is to offer a true confession.
